Sunday Pentecost Parish Eucharist at 9.45 am & YouthZone 6pm at St Cuthbert's

Refreshments after Sunday services will be offered again from June 5th. Colette is preparing a rota of people to serve tea/ coffee so if you would like to help let her know asap.

Thy Kingdom Come (TKC) began on Ascension Day and runs until Pentecost. The instruction is to await the Holy Spirit 's empowering presence and to pray for 5 specific people during these 10 days. Some booklets (Reflections on 1 Peter and a Prayer Journal) prepared by Justin Welby, the Archbishop of Canterbury are still available at the back of church.

MISSION AREA SERVICES & NEW GROUPS :

Mission Area Prayer Group A monthly prayer group is starting on 9th of June 11am at St Cuthbert's to pray specifically about our Mission Area. All are welcome. [Each month we'll move around the churches.]

Discipleship Group: Do you want to take your faith further, or learn more about being a Christian or simply want to meet with others who are also following Jesus? We're starting a new group on alternate Sundays from June 12th, it will also be a space for people to prepare for confirmation if they haven't already. Please speak to Karen or Toby if you are interested.

16th June Teaching Eucharist If you've ever wanted to know more about what happens in the eucharist, or why we have certain cups or pieces of linen or why we use the words, come along at 6:30pm at St James for a teaching service as we go through together and learn about what each bit of the service means.

We pray for the recently departed and keep in our prayers those whose anniversaries are commemorated in our memorial book this week: Clifford Saul, George Fletcher Peet, Benjamin John Hindley, George William Jones & Frank Oxspring,
